destination CANNES

Flying to Nice? Why not stop over in Madrid?

On your way to Cannes combine the sparkle of Spain with your artistic visit to the Côte d'Azur. Enjoy some Spanish folklore like the Corrida or a flamenco show in a gypsy cave for a different sort of inspiration.

Cannes via Madrid, a doubly advantageous idea!
You'll find flying with IBERIA really worth the trip!
And by the way, if you're up for an award, good luck!
