The Direction générale du cinéma et de l'audiovisuel (DGCA) is a government agency that comes under the Ministère des Communications du Québec. It coordinates the production and promotion of audiovisual material on behalf of the various departments of the Government of Québec, as well as promoting Québec cinema as a whole. The DGCA is responsible for acquiring, preserving and distributing government and Québec productions, or productions from elsewhere which are of interest to Québec. The following films, and many more, are available for purchase from the DGCA.

La leçon des mongoliens

Michel Moreau
french-colour ● 77 minutes ● 1974

Society has always regarded the mentally deficient and the mongol as "retarded". This film presents them to us simply, from another angle. Mongol children, who can teach us a great deal, are scrutinized directly, minutely and systematically by the camera.

Of Matter and Mettle

Jean Lepage
english-colour ● 10 minutes ● 1975

The viewer takes part in the preparations, efforts, joys and disappointments of young Québec athletes during the annual events of the Québec Games. The film, which moves at a swift, lively pace, won the highest award in the short subject category at the 8th Virgin Islands International Film Festival.

Un petit canard pas comme les autres

Claude Roussel and Gilbert Gratton
french-colour ● 20 minutes ● 1972

If you adopt an animal, you become responsible for it. This is the story of a young boy who finds, looks after and heals an injured duckling. He then sets it free.
(Prize: Canadian Film Award)

White-tailed Deer

Bernard Beupré
english-colour ● 11 minutes 48 seconds ● 1976

This film is intended to make known the deer-yard work of the biologists of the Service de la Faune of the Ministère du Tourisme, de la Chasse et de la Pêche.

UMIMMAQ

Bernard Beupré
english-eskimo-colour ● 26 minutes 50 seconds ● 1976

The musk ox has been imported into Québec and everything suggests that this animal, whose habitat is the tundra, will be able to survive here without difficulty. For eight years now animals have been raised at Umimmaqautik, where they are doing well and reproducing. In the film we witness the realization of the aim of the experiment, the adaptation of the musk ox to the Québec tundra.

Wildlife no 1

Bernard Beupré
english-colour ● 26 minutes 50 seconds ● 1976

Film to make known the work of the research workers and biologists of the Service de la Faune of the Ministère du Tourisme, de la Chasse et de la Pêche, dealing specifically with land wildlife.

Wildlife no 2

Bernard Beupré
english-colour ● 26 minutes 50 seconds ● 1976

Film to make known the work of the research workers and biologists of the Service de la Faune of the Ministère du Tourisme, de la Chasse et de la Pêche, dealing specifically with aquatic wildlife.
