Chic films. Chic videos. Chic people. Over 40,000 fashion slaves, small-scale jet-setters, would-be beautiful people and others, plebianly braved long line-ups at the 10-day 15th annual International Festival of New Cinema and Video to see the stars, examine the cutting edge of the 7th Art and find out what's 'In' in subcultures around the world. Photographer Linda Dawn Hammond captured the moment.
