

pearson turns to politics

Peter Pearson's film The Insurance Man from Ingersoll, aired on the CBC February 8th, is a political thriller and should provoke debate about a 'new direction' in Canadian cinema. Pearson tells us about the film's origins, and Fetherling, about the film and Ontario's current politics. Finally Blumer gives us a critics opinion.

Lining up a shot of Michael Magee (Edward Blake MPP) and Charlotte Blunt (TV reporter Catherine Reid) for The Insurance Man from Ingersoll.
