

Filming in Alberta

cinema Canada

#36

New York, Wednesday, November 24, 1976

128 PAGES

$1

NEW QUEBEC GOVT. BUOYS PIC HOPES

GLAD 'DO-LITTLE' HARDY IS OUT

French Talent Unions' Strike

Boston Bicent. Tourist Boom Just A Mirage

Boston Nov 23
That the bicentennial here was a bust is pretty well known, but now the official State officials, closing the 176th birthday

Montreal Nov 23
The Parti Quebecois, the separatist party, won the provincial elections on Nov. 15 and will form a new government next Friday. The film trade here is still unsure about the consequences. More immediately it is torn between a feeling of relief at the removal of Denis Hardy, 37-year-old

BY JEAN PIERRE LYBROS
cultural professions are joyful, expecting a renaissance now that the Quebecois seem to have a government which is in closer harmony to the deep-felt aspirations of the people.
The Quebec

mercial and cultural sectors of Quebec were often working at cross purposes or antagonistic

TV

The State of Quebec/Gilles Carle
For the Record/Film Reviews
Box Office Grosses