

The Montreal World Film Festival

(August 20-30, 1981)

announces

The Fifth

International Film Market

(August 24-29, 1981)

and the

International Economic Conference

on

"The commerce of film and television between North America and Europe."

(August 24-27, 1981)

- the most important film business people in North America and Europe will attend this unique conference and film market
- The Conference will examine all aspects of film and T.V. commerce between Europe and North America (USA and Canada)
- The Conference, the Film Market and the Center of the Festival will be located at the very modern Hyatt Regency Hotel
- 50 free stands are waiting for you
- 6 screening theatres (first screening without charge)
- Video-cassette screenings available without charge (North-American and European systems)
- Montreal is the place in North America where serious business is made and offers the best contacts with the Canadian film industry.

Be part of these exciting events next August!

For further information:

The World Film Festival - Montreal 1981
1455 de Maisonneuve Blvd., West
Montreal, Quebec, Canada
H3G 1M8

Telephone: (514) 879-4057
Telex: 05-25472 WOFILMFEST

The Montreal World
Film Festival

Is the only competitive film festival in the Western hemisphere recognized by the International Federation of Film
Producers Associations.
Three of its 1980 winners are
Oscar nominees in 1981: The Stunt Man,
El Nido, The Great Santini.